DR. WU WILL GIVE TALK TUESDAY

Chinese Lecturer To Speak At 11 O'clock Assembly; Evening At YW

Last Day For Proofs Today, Says R. Rector

Word that the Coleman Studios of Oakland will again locate on the campus for one day, today, was received Friday from La Torre Editor Robert Rector.

Returning from their regular studios located in Oakland, the Coleman Studios will spend today again returning proofs to those students who have not yet made a choice for their yearbook pictures.

P.E. Majors' Show Promises Famous Mystery Dancer

Musketeers To Make Opera Debut; Tickets Now On Sale For 25 Cents

Several new developments entered into the "Spartan Revue" picture as Steve Varich added mystery to the musical comedy with the announcement that he has secured, for the show, a tap dancer of outstanding ability. Though little could be learned about this "mystery dancer", Varich hinted that he was of national fame and reputation.

OPERA DEBUT

Following closely the first announcement, Maestro Varich revealed that the Musketeers, California's Hour contestants and local campus quartette, will make their debut into opera with a special rendition of the "Quartette" from Rigoletto at the P.E. Majors' Revue. Emphasizing the importance of quartette's initial step into the field of operatic music, Varich stated that "this marks the beginning of a new era in classic music for San Jose State."

GRIDDERS TO DANCE

Les Carpenter, former captain of the football team, will lead his band of gridiron warriors in various dances of all countries. After previewing this number of the revue, Varich predicted sensational success for the routine, asserting that Les (Fred Astaire) Carpenter and his band of grid-beauties will provide one the hit numbers of the evening.

Highlighting the show will be Joe Rapose, Miss Bruce Wilbur, and The Woodwind Trio, all of California's Hour fame. Jack Green, a well-known artist, will solo on the piano. According to Mel Isenberger, "pianist Green is a real show stopper."

First Student Body Dance To Be Held In Gym

'Sweetheart' Theme To Be Used Saturday Night

Amidst tall trees and thick green foliage, the scene of the first student body dance of the quarter, the "Sweetheart Dance", will be laid next Saturday night.

The men's gym will be transformed into a verdant wood for the dance, social affairs head Frances Cuenin revealed.

LOVER'S LANE

Lending atmosphere to the romantic theme of the dance, committee men are planning lover's lanes which will wind between the foliage and benches are to be placed at convenient places with quarter moons shining from overhead.

From the ceilings, huge red paper hearts will be suspended, and the lighting from the floodlights will blend in with the tone of the scene.

AL DAVINA

Playing for the dance will be Al Davina and his Royal Commanders, who recently completed a several months' engagement at the St. Claire Hotel. The orchestra will feature a bevy of vocalists, intermission numbers, and medleys of popular tunes from "way back".

Admission will be free with a student body card, and students may each bring one outsider for a charge of 25 cents.

Commencing at nine, the dancing will continue till twelve o'clock.

Student Boarders Find That Fish Oil And Coffee Are Bad

Fifteen boys, wiry-faced, sniffing, sat around a student boarding house dinner table recently.

There were sly whisperings similar to "What the heck is wrong with this coffee?" It did have a slightly queer taste and looked a bit oily—but the smell—that was the supreme repulsion.

The strange coffee remained a topic of wonder until the following day. Then came the revelation. The cook had mistakenly opened a can of fish oil instead of milk.

Winning Poster To Be Used On Stickers, Letterheads, Advertising Jubilee

Roque Palalay, senior art student, was awarded first place and a prize of $25 in the Diamond Jubilee Poster contest by final decision of the three official judges Saturday morning.

THREE USES

Awarded on the basis of originality of idea, suitability of design to the occasion, and technical excellence, the prize was given to Mr. Palalay for his interpretation of a poster, a windshield sticker, and a letterhead advertising the coming 75th anniversary of the founding of the college.

The entry of Salvatore Merendino, another art major, was given very favorable comment by the judges, according to Dr. Raymond Mosher, chairman of the college Alumni Council, which sponsored the contest.

ART MAJOR

Palalay, whose home is in Isleton, is obtaining an A. B. in art and is a member of Artizans, men's art fraternity. He was on the winning team.

Over-The-Week-End

By MARIAN SCHUMANN

Agreed—the Junior Prom was the most successful dance in many a San Jose State college moon . . . so successful that Patrons and Patronesses were seen dancing continually . . . a well nigh unforgettable happening . . . everyone seemed to have a grand time.

Decorations were simple . . . but very striking . . . think maybe the Juniors that slaved Friday from early morn to night will not agree on the simple part . . . white streamers formed a false ceiling over the large auditorium floor . . . and were gathered in the middle of the room to form an attractive center piece . . . lights played upon it to give a most interesting effect.

The orchestra was smooth . . . also the vocalists . . . from 9:30 until 10 o'clock KQW broadcasted the Prom . . . Joe Rapose brought down the house by singing "Pennies from Heaven"—sounded like a million . . . the program dances started after the broadcast much to the surprise of everyone.

Spotted Jewel Spanger looking very much under the Shakespeare influence with a smart little silver Juliet cap on . . . Helen Hohmyer with Bob Rector . . . Bob Miner and Barbara Matthew . . . Burton Abbott with Velma Gilardin . . . also "Julietish" . . . Mildred Sindel and Bill Baker . . . and Frances Young with Marion Hobbs.

Saw quite a few Kappa Kappa Sigmas at the Prom . . . President Frances Gibson was with Walter McPherson of Spartan basketball and football fame . . . Virginia French and Warren Anderson . . . also Pat Blackwood with George Place. Kappas are planning a super dance to be held February 13 at the Mark Hopkins—dancing to Griff Williams—they promise extra special decorations but won't tell.

SEEN ABOUT TOWN . . . Saturday night was a big night at the auditorium . . . many Staters enjoyed the dancing after watching State's basketball team go to town . . . Shirlee Montgomery was seen . . . don't think she ever misses a dance at the auditorium . . .

Lorraine Callander . . . of "Joyous Season" fame . . . San Francisco bound to dinner-dance at the Palace with a non-Stater . . . Jimmy Clapham of Modesto . . . attended Modesto J. C. together.

Margaret Royer and Bill Ziegler did a show . . . while Vivian Erikson, being a bike enthusiast, attended the races in the city . . . Clem Stewart, it seems, is trying to regain his poise after being forged to do a "Crosby" as part of his initiation at the joint meeting of the Pi Deltas and Omega Nu's.

Wife Gives School Insect Collection Of Late Dr. R. J. Smith

Several hundred valuable specimens of moths, beetles, and butterflies from the collection of the late Dr. R. J. Smith of Milpitas have been given to the college by his wife, it was announced last week by Dr. Carl Duncan of the Natural Science department.

The specimens, some of them rare, were collected, identified, and mounted by Dr. Smith as a hobby. Over 300 beetles are included in the collection.

Past donations to the school include the private collection of Dr. Duncan, a miscellany of material contributed by students, and the several dozen specimens of Arthur and Edgar Smith, State students.

Co-op House Girls RETIRE AFTER Breakfast Friday

A piercing ring . . . it's the alarm clock . . . time to get up for breakfast.

Ten girls at cooperative house on Eighth street prepared to start the day's activities as usual Friday morning, but some of them noticed that it was dark outside. A glance at wrist watches revealed that it was only two a.m.

Mrs. Sibyl Hanchett, house mother, went downstairs to investigate the matter. There Barbara Gruwell, one of the students who was taking her turn as cook, announced that breakfast was ready.

Upshot of the matter was that the heretofore reliable alarm clock had somehow been set ahead five hours.

As a matter of consolation, the girls reflected, they could fulfill for once that universal desire to go back to sleep after waking in the morning. But after this the alarm clock will be watched more closely when it is wound up for the night.

VOLLEYBALL CLUB

Members of the Volleyball club won an overwhelming victory over the faculty team of the Women's Physical Education departments in three fast games played last Friday noon.

It was decided that one game should decide the winner, but because the club members immediately chalked up a win of 15-0, it was decided that two out of three games be played.

The second game went in a very similar manner so that three out of five games were voted for the entire group.

Members of the faculty soon became so fatigued however, that the four out seven games never materialized.

The outstanding players on the floor were Miss Amari, Miss Dean, and Miss Jewell of the faculty.

Being the losing team, the faculty paid off by giving the club team lunch.

About 5 points were scored by the faculty in all three games. The costumes of the faculty were long white gym suits of 1908 vintage and which added to their many handicaps.

K. Gray Will Address Kappa Delta Pi Group At Meeting Tomorrow

Meeting Tuesday evening, Kappa Delta Pi, national education honor society, will hear a travel talk, to be given by Mr. K. Fillmore Gray, minister of the Mill valley Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. Gray is a brother of Miss Berta Gray, publication's assistant.

Mr. Gray indicated in a recent letter to members of the society he would talk informally on his travels in Europe, and would perhaps add a few words about his visit to the universities of New England, where he live for several years.

Tea Room Class To Serve Special Dessert For Ground-Hog Day

Tomorrow is ground-hog's day, and according to legend, if the ground-hog comes out and sees his shadow, there will be cold weather for the next six weeks.

The tea room management class, evidently content with "unusual" weather, will cooperate with the ground-hog and serve "shadow-pudding" at luncheon tomorrow in the college tea room.

Thirty-five cent luncheons are served in the tea room during the winter quarter on Tuesdays and Thursdays by the tea room management class under the direction of Mrs. Sarah Dowdle.

Miss Ruth Cooper will act as hostess this week, and will be assisted by Miss Vaughn Gage, assistant hostess.

SPORTS HEADLINERS

By WALTER HECOX

IT IS TOO BAD that more of the Washington Square sports fans do not appreciate, or understand Coach Gene Grattan's wrestling team. Messrs Della Maggione, Fiebig, Puckett and company are one of the really top-notch athletic organizations on the campus. They will have to meet a good many teams before they find one that is capable of pinning enough of them to the mat to defeat them.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT, amateur wrestling is one of the most complicated sports there is. They tell me that when they have learned 30 or 30 holds they are just starting. And if you think it's a gentle sport, go and work out with one of the boys some day.

OUR IDEA of a real gentleman is Mr. Howard Withycombe of swimming fame. A man of his word, so to speak.—On meeting him in one of the local doughnut, coffee, and ham sandwich joints Friday morning, we asked him, as a favor to the sport page, to break a few more records during the time trials later that afternoon. Withycombe laughingly responded that he would do his best to accommodate us.— Later that day we received the report that he had broken his own school records in the 100 and 150 yard backstroke.— Yes sir,—a real gentleman.

WE NOTICE also that Owen Collins, the football player who took a swimming class because it was required in his major, recently swam the 50 yard crawl in 26 flat to record the best time of the season in that event.

IN CONCLUSION, we wish the fourteen members of the Spartan boxing team scheduled to fight in the Junior PAA ring tonight, the best kind of good luck.

Frosh Baseball Sked Released

The Spartan freshman baseball aggregation, which has as yet had little actual practice, released their 1937 schedule last Friday. The season will start Monday when Franny Pura's club meets the San Francisco Reds in a seven inning game at the Spartan field. Weather conditions will probably hinder any extensive practice before this first game of the year, although Coach Pura is hoping for a good week of practice preceding the Santa Clara game which is scheduled for February 12.

The schedule, which includes a two-game series with the Santa Clara freshmen, also includes such schools as Menlo Junior College and the Moffet Field Marines from Sunnyvale.

The freshman schedule for the season is as follows:

- Feb. 8—Mission Reds, at San Jose.
- Feb. 12—Santa Clara Frosh, at Santa Clara.
- Feb. 19—San Mateo High, at San Jose.
- Feb. 23—Moffet Field Marines, at Sunnyvale.
- Feb. 26—Mt. View High, at San Jose.
- March 3—San Mateo Junior College, at San Mateo.
- March 5—San Mateo High, at San Mateo.

SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1937

MARTIN WEMPE CUTS TEN SECONDS OFF OF 440-YARD FREESTYLE SWIM RECORD

Martin Wempe, frosh swim star, swam to a new school record in the 440 freestyle event in time trials held yesterday afternoon.

Wempe, in setting the new record at 5:32, clipped ten seconds from the old record of 5:42 which was made by the former team captain, Norman Fitzgerald a year ago at Logan, Utah.

Swimming with Wempe in the 440 was Wallace Kemper, who according to eye witnesses, turned in one of the pluckiest bits of swimming of the year when he out-swam himself by pacing the record breaker almost to the finish line.

KEMPER IN 220

Kemper, who broke a record himself by lowering the existing mark in the 220 freestyle, is expected, with a little more practice, to narrow the gap between his time and Wempe's.

Howard Withycombe, through force of habit perhaps, again broke the existing school record in both the 100 and 150 yard back stroke events; although due to fouling the guide lines several times, his time was a trifle slower than those he had turned in previously.

FROSH PROSPECTS

The Frosh swimming prospects are becoming definitely brighter, numbering among their stars both Martin and Al Wempe. Al swims the 50 yard freestyle with Freshman Harry Baher, ex-frosh gridder, both of whom are expected to lower their times to near 26 flat.

Kemper, who has already proven his ability, and Fisher, former San Jose High swimmer, round out the freshmen prospects.

Because of the flu, workouts have, until now, been rather light. Beginning today, Coach Charlie Walker will start his swimmers in extensive preparation for their meet with the San Francisco YMCA squad next Friday night in Spartan pool. The meets will be a triangular affair, with San Jose varsity, San Jose Frosh, and the Y club participating.

SPARTAN WRESTLERS DEFEAT ATHENS CLUB 31 TO 10

Two decisions, two falls, and three forfeited matches, gave the Spartan wrestling team a 31 to 10 victory over the Athens club Saturday night.

In order to replace one of the forfeited matches, George Wenglein, 155 pounds, met Al Shay of the Oakland YMCA. Shay won by a fall in 9:12 in what turned out to be one of the best matches of the evening. Shay is the present Far Western and PAA champion.

At 170 pounds, Frank Kelly of March 8—Santa Clara High, at San Jose.

March 10—San Mateo Junior College, at San Jose.

March 12—Moffet Field Marines, at San Jose.

March 15—Mt. View High, at Mt. View.

March 17—Santa Clara Frosh, at San Jose.

March 18—Menlo Junior College, at Menlo.

March 30—Santa Clara High, at Santa Clara.

April 5—Montezuma, at San Jose.

April 13—Roosevelt High of Oakland, at San Jose.

April 20—California Frosh, at Berkeley.

April 28—Montezuma at Montezuma.

May 4—Modesto J. C., at Modesto.

This schedule does not include tentative games with Monterey Presidio and with Salinas Junior College. These games, if they are definitely scheduled, will be played in the early part of May.

San Jose scored an upset win by a fall in 5:32. This match was second only to the Shay-Wenglein affair for thrills.

A double top vine plus a reverse nelson enabled Jack Fiebig to win over John Blanco in 7:29. Fiebig was in his usual championship form.

Henry Puckett proved himself to be one of the best men in the bay region in winning a decision over John Smith. Puckett won by the top time of 5:32.

Martin Olivarri piled up the top time of 4:07 to win from Dalo of the Club. Olivarri's usual wiry strength and speed enabled him to win the match with his usual ease.

Martin Sword, and Carlton Lindgren, the team nightingale, each lost by a fall to Holbrook and McFarland of the club respectively. Lindgren found his shoulders rubbing against the mat in 3:37, while Sword postponed his defeat until 7:05 minutes of the match had passed.

The club donated 10 points with-

WOLF PACK THREATENS AS SAN JOSE SLUMPS

Fourteen Boxers To Fight In PAA Tonight

Fourteen Spartan boxers will travel north tonight to participate in the second round of the Junior PAA tourney in San Francisco.

Little Paul Tara, will open his quest for the lightweight title, and there is a strong probability that George Latka will be traveling with him.

Don Walker faces the possibility of meeting once again Ed Hanna, who he kayo'd after a sensational battle in the Stockton ring during the Pyramid Belt championships.

Eleven other less well known, but equally talented fighters are going with them, all with their hearts set on retaining the team title Coach Portal and his cohorts collected for themselves last year.

Four members of the Spartan team have already taken their first step toward the team title. Two, Bill Moulden and Dale Wren have advanced by virtue of knockout wins, while the other two, Bill Radunich and Bob Harris were awarded byes.

Others scheduled to battle tonight are Anthony Pisano, John Nuccio, Ray Bruton, James Kincaid, Karl Drexel, Gordon Begg, Pete Bolich, Herman Zetterquist, and possibly Joe Rapose, Chuck Peach, and Bob Stone.

State In Usual Second Half Frenzy; Ivor Thomas, Frank Carroll Star

San Jose State's first half team went into an habitual second-half slump in Spartan gym Saturday night to allow a fighting Nevada Wolfpack aggregation to come from behind in a near-repetition of what happened to the Spartans against S.F.U., St. Mary's, and Santa Clara.

Whipping no less than 18 points through the loop in the first eight minutes of play to Nevada's 5, the Spartans allowed Nevada to stage a long-bombing second half rally which had Washington Square fans wondering if State was going to win the game after all.

San Jose State, while displaying some of the finest under-bucket passwork this season, played a "you shoot, I don't wanna" type of offense which saw numerous scoring opportunities gone with the wind.

Starting off in a 9-point spree which had Carroll score 4, Thomas 2, Crawford 2, and DeSelle 1 in rapid succession, it looked as though the Spartans were off to a Stanford victory.

Kept in the game by a sharp-shooting junior forward, John Robb, the Nevadans worried the Spartans throughout the second half although Coach Martie's men never came closer than 6 points to a tie with the Spartans.

It was the opinion of numerous State enthusiasts that the fight of Ralph Johnson had much to do with cutting short the second half Nevada score-fest.

Lloyd Thomas, a boy who goes way up in the air off the backboard, was along with Ivor Thomas largely responsible for keeping Nevada's attack from penetrating the circle.

The long arms of Ivor Thomas again accumulated high point honors with 16, while swift-passing Frank Carroll was second for the Spartans with 11.

This situation forms the central theme of "Spring Dance", which will be presented by the Dramatics department under the direction of Mr. Hugh Gillis February 10, 11, and 12 in the Little Theater.

WOMEN HATER

Alex is the girl in the play who loves Sam, a college man oblivious to her charms and influenced by a cynical woman-hater known as "The Lippincott". Alex's girlfriends spare no pains to keep Sam at home until, in their quaint jargon, Alex succeeds in "getting the rat".

Fast moving college comedy results from this plot, according to Mr. Gillis. Alex will be played by Vivien Wood; Sam by Gary Simpson, and The Lippincott by Harold Randle.

MUCH COMEDY

Comedy will be furnished mainly by Ona Hardy, June Chestnut, and Lavelle Smith as roommates of Alex are even more interested than she in the conquest of Sam.

Other important roles in the play will be filled by Etta Green, Bill Gordon, Henry Puckett, Ruth MacQuarrie, Peter Mingrone, Wanda Tower, and George Ryan.

State College Well Functions Again; Workmen Complete Duties Saturday As Water Runs Clear

Pump Needed Only Thirteen Hours To Clean Out Dirt And Sediment

San Jose students are today again using water from the State college well. Friday afternoon workmen announced that the well was back in running order and would be giving water to the college at least by Monday.

PERFECTLY CLEAN

After the casing had been driven through the collapsed section of the well and the pump had been installed, water poured into Seventh street beginning last Thursday. Foremen on the job then were not certain as to the length of time necessary to remove dirt and sediment from the water. However, after only 13 hours of steady pumping, the water came perfectly clear and ready for use.

According to Art Daly, head driller on the job, the casing on the old well, which collapsed just before Christmas, was completely closed at 270 feet. A ten-inch pipe was driven down through the old fourteen-inch casing to the gravel bed at approximately 300 feet. A danger that the water stream was congested and would necessitate the drilling of a new well passed over when the stream ran strong and clear Friday.

PUMPING STRONG

The well is now pumping 500 gallons of water per minute, according to Mr. Conroy of the C. and N. Pump and Well company of Santa Clara, who was supervising finishing touches Friday.

With the water level standing at 87 feet, the drawdown is only 9.2 feet, which Conroy and Daly say is remarkable. They stated that San Jose State college has a better well now than before the accident which made necessary the repairs.

The entire job was under the direction of the state of California, represented by Mr. J. L. Montgomery.

Hanna Not Hannah On Palo Alto Police Force

Edward Hanna, not Robert Hannah, as indicated in Friday's Spartan Daily, received his uniform in the Palo Alto police department Thursday.

Hanna, a former State college police school major, and one of two men accepted by Chief Howard Zink, was chosen because of his record here.

Letter From Flood Area Describes Efforts Of Firemen To Put Out Burning Building While Up To Necks In Water

By MARION STARR

Noah had nothing on the mid-westerners, for "Water, water, water, everywhere and not a drop to quench a fire" might be a paraphrase suitable to the Mississippi river valley during this flood time, judging by the letter received yesterday by Dr. Dorothy Kaucher from her sister, Miss Mildred Kaucher, in Cincinnati.

The envelope in which the letter arrived was muddy and much the worse for wear, according to Dr. Kaucher.

Quoted below are excerpts from the letter, showing a few of the less serious incidents of the flood area.

HISTORY IN MAKING

"Folks, this is really history in the making. The river stands at 72 feet, the highest in the history of this town. Thirty thousand people have been driven from their homes in this area and they are rushing some coast guard boats and crews from New Jersey to help the canoes, rowboats, and stern-wheelers that are now taking people from housetops and attics.

"City officials say the electricity may be turned off at any time—so to use it sparingly. We have a couple of Christmas candles but that's all, and the stores are all out of candles. One woman called up the police and said her piano was going to float away and what could she do about it and the sergeant said "Play 'Beautiful Ohio' on it for the last time and then get out."

They say there's only a 24 hour supply of gasoline in the city, but then I don't see why anyone need be running cars very much since so many of the roads are closed.

UP TO NECKS

"A big B and O round house burned to the ground last night. It was entirely surrounded by water and the firemen had to dive in order to find the fire plugs and then had to wade in water up to their necks to reach the building. Well, there's a special train bringing the Coast Guard from the Jersey coast here and then all will be well when they go zipping around among the sycamores with loaves of bread and hot coffee for all tree dwellers.

"Trains aren't using the Union Terminal anymore but all passengers are leaving from suburban stations. I don't think the water has gotten into the station itself but the tracks are covered. They say southern Missouri is badly flooded and that Ol' Man River himself is preparing for a high old time in these parts on to the gulf.

This is station NOAH signing off."

"I sent her a box of San Jose candles marked 'Compliments of California Coast Guard' just so New Jersey wouldn't get ahead of us," commented Dr. Kaucher.
